PROFILE of the IAM

I urge you to become active in YOUR Local Lodge, District Lodge, to attend meetings and fully share in the decisions, which affect your life on the job, and in your community.

Welcome to your new family.

In solidarity,

Dave Ritchie

CONVENTIONS

The Supreme governing body of the IAM is the Grand Lodge Convention which meets every four years. Delegates are rank and file members elected by the members at the local level.

Grand Lodge: Properly a reference to the IAM Executive Council and the elected, seated IAM Convention delegates, the term often used in reference to the Executive Council or the IAM Headquarters and the various territorial offices. (See Executive Council.)

The Masonic symbol in the top right shows the compass with both legs over top of the square symbolizing the Master Mason degree; 3°.
One leg over; one leg under, the Fellow Craft degree; 2°.
Both legs under; the Entered Apprentice degree; 1°.

From the manual, Freemasonry On Trial, Part 1, page 7 www.ctmin.org

During the ceremonies of the ritual for the Royal Arch degree, the candidate is asked, "Brother Inspector, what are you?" and he replies, "I AM THAT I AM." Can you imagine that? When Moses asked God to name Himself, God said, "I AM THAT I AM" and He said, "Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent Me unto you." (Exodus 3:14)
